

Liberating the Curriculum

Friday 01 June 2012

Scotland's Colleges, Argyll Court, Stirling

Programme:

09:30 - 10:00: Registration

10:00 – 10:15: Welcome

John Salter, Sustainable Development Consultant for Scotland's Colleges.
John will welcome delegates and provide a brief introduction to the event.

10:15 – 10:45: Opening speaker

Jimmy Brannigan, Sustainable Development Education Specialist, EAUC.
Jimmy will discuss the current status of sustainable development education in the tertiary sector, the achievements and challenges.

10:45 – 11:45: Workshop Sessions 1

11:45 - 12:00: Break

12:00 – 13:00: Workshop Sessions 2

13:00 – 14:00: Lunch and networking

14:00 – 15:00: Workshop Sessions 3

15:00 - 15:30: World Cafe action planning

Join staff and students from your institution to discuss ideas from the day and to action plan for future projects

15:30: Close

Workshops:

Workshop sessions 1	Hands-on lessons: greening vocational courses Elaine Crawford, sustainability advisor at Dumfries &amp; Galloway College and Jenny Kellie, Scotland's Colleges Subject Mentor for Construction Skills share how they're developing their health &amp; beauty and construction courses to get students active on sustainability issues.
	Influencing the curriculum on campus Learn the skills from Sparqs about how to engage with policy and use course representation in order to enhance the curriculum from the bottom up.
Workshop sessions 2	Celebrating Scottish expertise Find out about the plans to establish a Regional Centre for Excellence for Education for Sustainable Development in Scotland with Amy Woodgate from Edinburgh University
	Learnings from the Dragons' Den People &amp; Planet and the Green Dragons' Den winners share how they developed exciting projects as part of their coursework
	Liberating the curriculum Find out how students are working with NUS on embedding issues of equality in learning and teaching
Workshop sessions 3	Green Skills Manifesto Find out from Graham Peterson from UCU about how a Green Skills Manifesto could support an ESD strategy for HE in Scotland
	Autonomous Edinburgh University Find out about the 'Learning for Change- Students' Visions' manifesto written by Edinburgh students and learn how to engage staff and students in grassroots curriculum development

